- It's not clear from abstract whether the data presented are from an actual testing/feasibility study or the authors present a proposal based on their model with no actual data points.
- It would be nice to see – the cost implication of e.g. acquiring the innovation – how much will it cost a potential facility or practitioner to have the system? Are there further costs to it?
- How is data privacy and protection assured with such a system?
- Can such a system be practical in far remote areas with challenges in internet connectivity? This will likely be an issue of equity?
